BOO 2-IN-1 MASSAGE-LUBE 150ML

BOO 2-in-1 massage lube is a water-based lubricant that ensures natural pleasure thanks to the unique gliding texture. It has a hydrating and moisturizing effect on the skin. The BOO Massage Lube 2-in-1 gives more comfort during sexual activities. It can be used as a massage liquid suitable for body massages, and as a lube, complementing the natural body moisture for more intense sexual intercourse.

A massage can be great as foreplay, but with this 2-in-1 massage liquid you don't have to stop using it there. Foreplay can easily evolve into intercourse with the BOO 2-in-1 massage lubricant.

Apply an amount of liquid to the hands and slowly start rubbing and massaging. Once the lube gets warmer because of hand temperature, body temperature, the oils special warming properties and the movements, it will glide smoothly. Apply new lube to your hands to extend the massage to other body parts, or every time you feel it has been absorbed by the skin. Suitable for massage and as a lube, this BOO product can be used on the intimate parts.
